Again, Convencio Valencianista is celebrating “Tots els dies 9”, this time in Cullera; celebration in which

L'

Institut

collaborates. It will be next

Saturday

7th may, at 11h

, when we will meet in this city for paying tribute to

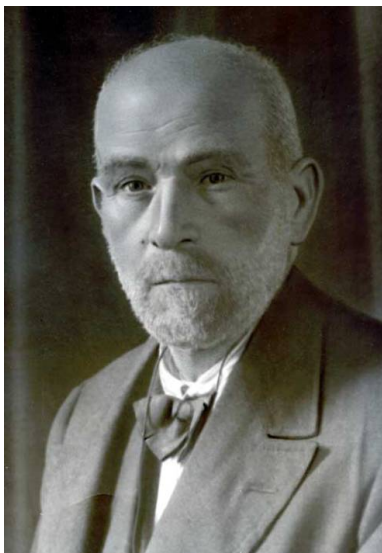

Joan Olivert Serra

and

José Alemany Bolufer

, two prominent citizens from Cullera.

Joan Olivert Serra was the man who in 1909 in Paterna, and for the first time in the State, flied in an airplane. José Alemany Bolufer was de academician who in 1928 gave a welcome speech to Pare Lluís Fullana for his joining to the RAE.

As usually, at the end of the parliaments of tribute, we will perform a leisure and cultural activity. This time we will visit the Cullera Castle.

and the
Shrine of the Virgin

For this activity, the meeting point will be the car park in the Castle. You can easily reach te place on foot or by car, coming up “el Calvari” from the city. Since the train station is a bit far, try to get better all by car. To organize in the best way possible, it is important to confirm your attendance by sending an email to cvalencianista@gmail.com or rogleconstantillombart@gmail.com
